Fire Razes New Home

CAMPBELL RIVER — Fire completely destroyed the newly-built home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Harasimo at Oyster Bay, 11 miles south of here, Wednesday.

The couple and a small son, Jay, returned from a visit to Port Alberni in time to find firemen battling flames engulfing the home they had just moved into the week before.

All their furniture and personal belongings were lost in the fire. The blaze was discovered by a neighbor, Jack Ryan, who saw smoke puffing under a door. He found the interior of the house "an inferno," when he went to investigate.

The call to Campbell River fire department had to be relayed via toll call to the B.C. Telephone exchange at Courtenay, causing a costly delay, Fire Chief Oscar Thulin said.

Loss of the home added fuel to Oyster Bay ratepayers' demand to be transferred to Northwest Telephone Co. service. It would give them direct connections with Campbell River for fire, police, hospital and other emergency and service calls.

Mrs. Harasimo lost many trophies and awards won in hairdressing competitions in Canada and the United States.

A less costly fire was attended by the department shortly after the Oyster Bay fire.

A passerby noticed smoke inside the Campbell River Lockers' store and called firemen in time to save the building from serious damage. Firemen discovered a hotplate had been left on. The smoke was caused by burning fat, spilled on the hotplate, they said.

Shawnigan Cadets To Parade

SHAWNIGAN LAKE — Officers and cadets of the Shawnigan Lake School Sea Cadet Corps, RCSCC Cougar, will parade with their band to St. John's Church in Victoria Sunday.

Following service the parade will fall in at 12.15 p.m. and retrace its route to HMCS Malahat. Rear-Admiral H. S. Rayner will take the salute in front of the public library during the return march.

Beware Peddlers —Reeve

DUNCAN—Reeve C. A. P. Murison, of North Cowichan Municipality, issued a second warning to ratepayers "not to buy from door to door, fly-by-night peddlers." The council has no right to refuse a licence to a peddler, the reeve said, "but residents should check with the municipal office or police to make sure that peddlers do have municipal licences.

"But even though they have licences," he warned "there is no guarantee that the peddlers are selling bona fide merchandise, or that the householder will not be taken. Many purchasers of magazines and books sign contracts without reading the fine print and find themselves hooked."

Councillor Tony Staples said that several persons had been victimized at Maple Bay.

Nanaimo Meeting

Jaycees Drop May 24 Parade

NANAIMO — Junior Chamber of Commerce here has gone out of the parade business and left the whole issue of the famous Empire Day spectacle in doubt.

Members voted 17 to two last night to abandon the parade organization this year.

They said financial returns were unsatisfactory for the number of hours of work involved and expressed concern because of public criticism when parade date was changed last year from Monday to Saturday.

The club also decided not to sponsor the civic float, another traditional Jaycee job, this year.
